RESPONSE TO DECISION ON REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF PATENT TERM
ADJUSTMENT AND NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE CERTIFICATE OF CORRECTION

In a Decision on Request for Reconsideration of Patent Term Adjustment and Notice of Intent to Issue Certificate of Correction ("Decision") dated July 18, 2011, the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("Office") granted to the extent indicated herein Patentees' Application For Patent Term Adjustment (PTA) Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(d) filed June 13, 2011, for the above-indicated patent. The Office agreed to adjust a period of time corresponding to Applicant Delay, for a total Applicant Delay of 431 days. The Office did not agree that "B Delay" should not be reduced by 127 days for the period of time under which the application was not undergoing continued examination.

The Office Incorrectly Excluded a Period of Time from B Delay that Does Not Correspond to
Time Consumed by Continued Examination

The Decision stated that the patent is entitled to 272 days of PTA. Patentees maintain that the patent is entitled to 399 days of PTA, for the reasons provided below.

"A Delays" are defined as delays by the Office under 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(A), which guarantees prompt response by the Office. It is Patentees' understanding that there is no dispute that there was one period of A Delay (December 22, 2004, to May 25, 2006) for a total of 510 days.
